

PDU Category Structure and Policies

Each professional development activity yields one PDU for one hour spent engaged in the activity. The new six PDU categories fall into two divisions—Education and Giving Back to the Profession—as illustrated below.

EDUCATIONAL	GIVING BACK TO THE PROFESSION
Courses offered by PMI’s R.E.P.s or Chapters and Communities	Creating New Project Management Knowledge
Continuing Education	Volunteer Service
Self-Directed Learning	Work as a Professional in Project Management

EDUCATION CATEGORIES
CATEGORY A: Courses offered by PMI's R.E.P.s or Chapters and Communities	Earn PDUs by attending educational courses offered by PMI's Registered Education Providers (R.E.P.s). These providers adhere to quality criteria established by PMI and are solely authorized to issue PDU certificates to attendees. R.E.P.s can be identified by their logo:    Examples of R.E.P.s include schools, consultants, corporate training departments, professional associations, government agencies and PMI chapters. View the searchable database of R.E.P.s and the courses they offer online. You can also earn PDUs by attending events (seminars, conferences, etc.) offered by PMI, PMI chapters and communities of practice. These event listings can be found on PMI's events calendar or on the websites of your specific chapter or the community of practice to which you belong. You can also earn PDUs by taking a PMI® Publication Quiz, available in the PMI.org Marketplace.
PDU Rule:	1 hour of instruction related to project management, program management, project risk, project scheduling or agile project management equals 1 PDU. You can report PDUs in 0.25, 0.50 and 0.75 increments.
Documentation required upon PMI audit/request:	Registration form, certificate or letter of attendance.
CATEGORY B: Continuing Education	Earn PDUs: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • By completing an academic course being offered by a university or college OR • By attending relevant educational courses offered by training organizations NOT registered with PMI. This may include training (or a Webinar) offered by your employer, another professional or membership association, or a non R.E.P. training organization. When only a portion of a course relates to your credential area of expertise, calculate PDUs by the percentage of the overall curriculum focused on the topic. Report each course separately. Entire degree programs will not be recognized for PDU credits, only individual courses.
